AT THE FRONT WITH THE ALLIES

At the Opera House Saturday, Dec. 30th.

The management of the Opera House has refused in the past to run any so-called War Pictures, for the reason that they did not consider them authentic, but when they were convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the Six Reel Feature, "At the Front With the Allies," was actually made on the battlefields of Europe, they booked it at once.

This wonderful picture shows the havoc wrought by submarines, close up views of the big guns in action, fights between aeroplanes, the destruction of battle ships, and everything connected with modern warfare.

Every school boy and girl should see this picture and get an idea of what war really is. It will be shown at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 30th. Matinee at 3 P. M. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

Night performance commences promptly at 7:30 and 9:30. This production was shown in the city of Atlanta all of last week to packed houses at 25c. admission.

HUBERT COX HOME.

Hubert Cox, who ran his cousin Dave Hill's law office, when Dave was off courting in the summer, is at home from the University. Hubert is one of the promising young boys of the town, and he will be a great man one of these days. He has good sense and plenty of steam, and he will make things turn over when he puts his hand to the plow and starts his own row. The young girls of the city would do well to keep him on their eligible lists.

A DANCE.

The boys ground at Miss Maggie Brooks' house entertained a few friends on Tuesday at a very informal dance. Lively victrola music was played and a most pleasant evening was passed off by those present.
